ZLOG Class of 2021 FUNED & MIT- Zaragoza Master Scholarship

Zaragoza Logistics Center (ZLC) has signed a joint agreement with FUNED (Fundación Mexicana para la Educación, la Tecnología y la Ciencia, A. C.), with the objective of awarding in collaboration one scholarship for a qualified applicant from Mexico to undertake the MIT-Zaragoza Master of Engineering in Logistics & Supply Chain Management (ZLOG) program in the academic year 2020 - 2021.

Description

FUNED is a private non-profit organization created with the sole purpose of contributing to improve the level of higher education in Mexico. The foundation fulfills its mission by offering complementary financing to Mexican students to help them obtain a master's degree from a reputable University. Through this education they can obtain added knowledge and multicultural vision which they can eventually use to help Mexican organizations to keep pace with the accelerated advance in management, productivity, science and technology of the global economy. www.funedx.org

The MIT-Zaragoza Master of Engineering in Logistics and Supply Chain Management program attracts top students from around the world to study and perform research in Zaragoza, Spain. The ZLOG program builds on the successful curriculum at MIT, which has consistently been ranked first by US News & World Report in Logistics and Supply Chain Management. As part of the program, ZLOG students travel to the U.S. to attend seminars at MIT and visit companies. ZLOG requires ten months of full time study in English. In addition to core and elective coursework, the curriculum includes a thesis project. The program develops the analytical and leadership skills that companies seek in an increasingly technological and international marketplace.

Coverage

ZLC provides a 25% tuition scholarship for the ZLOG Program, equivalent to €6,000. Furthermore, FUNED grants a "credit-scholarship" covering up to 40% of the total cost of the ZLOG Program, not to exceed $12,000 USD. The amount provided to the scholarship holder will be based on the results of FUNED's financial needs evaluation of the student, his or her repayment capability, and a personal interview.
